although the cry for justice in human society is an important theme in the bible in many church and academic circles action for and discourse about social justice is carried on without a thorough exploration of this theme in scripture this volume brings together chapters by experts in the various sections of the old and new testaments to give a full spectrum of what the bible has to say about social justice and to point to ways forward for christians seeking to think and act in harmony with god in pursuing social justice in the world today this package includes the complete two volume set of the book of revelation from the macarthur new testament commentary series revelation 1 11 and revelation 12 22 the macarthur new testament commentary series continues to be one of today s top selling commentary series these commentaries from respected bible scholar and preacher john macarthur give a verse by verse analysis in context and provide points of application for passages illuminating the biblical text in practical and relevant ways revelation 1 3 says blessed is the one who reads the words of this prophecy and blessed are those who hear it and take to heart what is written in it because the time is near that blessing may be hard to receive with the book s shrouded prophecy and eschatological mysteries confusing scholar and lay reader alike macarthur pulls back the veil and reveals more of what god s word has to say to us in revelation covering volatile topics as the rapture the millennial kingdom and the anti christ these volumes will open your eyes to receive the blessing promised in revelation s opening verses this study examines the varieties and continuities of ethical exhortations and ideals in the jewish and christian traditions c 200 bce 100 ce that fall under the rubric of non retaliation one of the principal conclusions of this thought provoking work is that a critical factor in determining the shape of non retaliatory ethics is whether the exhortation is applied to relations within the local and or elect community or to relations with oppressors of the elect community it becomes apparent also that the non retaliatory ethic of the nt stands solidly in the tradition of non retaliatory ethics in early judaism
